Focus on consistency was prioritised throughout design process

Key components like header, header logo, navigation, and footer were designed to remain consistent

Home, portfolio and contact sections maintain a similar layout

Hello World!
I'm Kim, an emerging full-stack web developer

About Me

I'm a part-time full-stack web development student, leveraging my maths background for a career change into software development.

After graduating with a bachelor's in mathematics, I spent three years in project management. This experience provided valuable skills, but now I'm pursuing a passion for coding.

Outside of work, I enjoy reading, crocheting/knitting,
